DETAILED ACTION

Claims pending 74,75, 82 and 83.

The rejection of the claims 71, 75, 79 and 81 under 35 USC 112 first para new matter has been withdrawn as some claims have been cancelled and also claim 74 and 75 do have support for R''' and R''' for H and alkyl.

The rejection of claims 71, 74, 75 and 79-81 under 35 USC 112 scope of enablement has also been withdrawn as applicants have deleted the non-enabled subject matter from the claims.

New Grounds of rejection.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 74, 85, 82 and 83 are provisionally rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claim 19 of copending Application No. 08/141,246. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the claim is drawn to a pharmaceutical composition of the claimed compounds.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

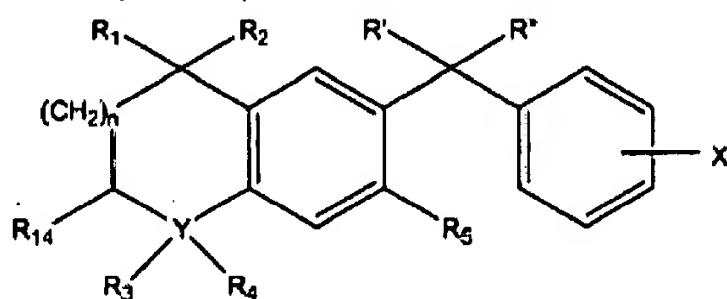

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 74, 75, 82 and 83 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Jean Maignan et al. EP 8610423.

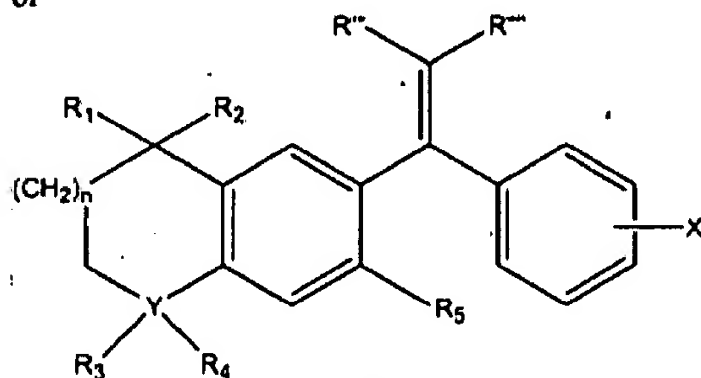

Art Unit: 1625

Applicants claims are drawn to compounds of the formula

(I)

or

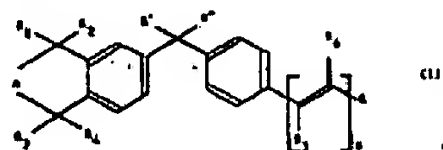

(II)

wherein

Scope & Content of Prior Art MPEP 2141.01

The EP document teaches a genus

(57) Composés de formule :

wherein n can be 0, R is a COOalkyl or COOH, A is a methylene or a dimethlen making it a 5 or a 6 membered ring.

Difference between Prior Art and the claims MPEP 2141.02

A genus is described in the prior art. Applicants genus is a part of it.

Prima Facie Obviousness , Rational and Motivation MPEP 2142-2413

One of skill in the art would have been motivated to pick the applicants genus from that of the prior art as the scope and variables are few and it would be obvious to pick and choose.

Conclusion

Claims 74, 75, 82 and 83 are not found to be allowable.
